DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. Claims 1-4, 9-17, 22-31 and 36-38 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-8 of U.S. Patent No. 5,823,873. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application and the claims of the patent have similar steps of playing a card game, but use different terminology. For example, claims of the application recite "displaying a first row of five cards", "reusing the cards selected to be held from the first row of cards to the second row of cards", and "providing additional cards to the second row of cards so that the second row of cards has five cards", while the claims of the patent recite "dealing a first hand of at least five cards", duplicating the cards selected to be held from the first hand into a second hand", and "completing the second hand to have at least five cards by dealing additional face up cards".
2. Claims 5-8, 18-21 and 32-35 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-8 of U.S. Patent No. 5,823,873 in view of Crouch.
3. The patent to Crouch teaches that it is known in the gaming machine art such as poker machines, which have a plurality of rows of symbols to provide a plurality of paylines, wherein the paylines are more than the number of rows. Crouch's paylines shown in Fig. 6 are similar to the paylines recited in claims 5-7, 18-20 and 32-34. In view of such teaching, it would have been obvious to incorporate additional paylines to

US Patent No. 5,823,873. The additional paylines would have been similar to the paylines shown in Crouch Fig. 6. This modification would have provided more betting opportunities to for the players playing US Patent No. 5,823,873, thus making the game more exciting to play.

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).
